

This is a plea to reject the Bankers attempt to change Indiana's privacy law that blocks unwanted calls from commercial and solicitation firms. The program works extremely well for consumers and those unwanted calls stopped immediately after we contacted the State of Indiana only once. Please don't let anybody mess with a law that is bringing so much relief to taxpayers.